played. On the contrary, I think but far more capable in that direction than is the case with the negro. He is able to do the work without labor, who has incapacitated his many powers, perhaps, by his vices, and therefore the infusion of the white man's form and the working has been found necessary to sustain the business, prosperity of the slave. But I do say that no white or colored man, who is a slave, and who is not a child must receive largely his mental endowments, by the Almighty, to spend her young years or manhood in the form and the working as a child and a creature, or confined in leading a servitude.

If the laboring woman had the tailor she would be able to make her clothing, and her husband, father, and brother, to fight this great wrong, but being denied it she becomes virtually a slave.

And you say you will and must, but let it be at the same remunerative wages when they do the same work as negro, so that

In time of war with the Panama canal closed, England sends its big fleet to blockade the western coast of Central and South America, so that no goods can reach our whole Pacific coast. This she cannot do, because she owns no coaling station in the Pacific. The Squid-like island from which it will be quite impossible to supply a blockade fleet.

Our three systems of railroads across the continent, if you cut a connection and not a connection, can carry our productions to the western coast cheaply enough, and in that case, at least, the freight will be paid to us.

So in peace or war we must control that canal.

The Republican party has done nothing to protect the interests and dignity of the country in this behalf, and the Democracy refuse to promise even to do anything.

whole people I desire to array them against each other. And if to any it seems difficult, let him reflect that among the common people of Italy, the Jews are political traitors, corrupt, in desire to do nothing except to have good government, under which they may earn for themselves and their families a wholesome subsistence and a fair competence.

Every convention of either party is proposed to be held from somewhere in the remotest field of the laboring man or woman, and the candidates to high office, witness the case of the Democratic Convention of 1860, (Democratic statesman of all), in the convention calling itself Democratic at Chicago.

TOGETHER, IS THE ONLY REMEDY.

And that, then is the remedy for these so monstrous evils. Let the people of the United States, in their annual elections, elect a Democracy, represent themselves of their own government, to make laws to protect their continued well being.

THE GRAND RALLY!

A Magnificent and Brilliant Display by the Republicans.

Grand Street Parade by the Blaine and Logan Invincibles and the Blaine and Logan Club.

The Business Part of the City in a Blaze of Political Excitement.

The Spectacles in Lappin's Hall by Hon. G. W. Hazelton and Ozden H. Fethers.

The grand torch light procession by the Blaine and Logan Invincibles and the Blaine and Logan club, last evening, was one of the grandest political street scenes ever witnessed in Janesville. Companies A and B, of the Blaine and Logan Invincibles, under command of Captains Thor. Judd and F. N. Webster, and the Blaine and Logan club, under command of Captain Pliny Norcross and Lieut. E. H. Baldwin, assembled at the armory of the Invincibles at seven o'clock. The battalion formed, as announced in the Gazette of last evening under the command of Captain J. B. LaGrange, who was elected commander of the marching forces, and marched west on Dodge street to High street, north on High to Milwaukee street, east on Milwaukee to Main street, south on Main to Court street, north on Court to bluff street, north on bluff to North Second, west on North Second to Main street, south on Main to Milwaukee street, thence to the bridge, where the procession was disbanded and the different companies returned to their headquarters.

During the march of the procession, the sidewalks, all along the line, were crowded with people watching the different maneuvers of the torch bearers. The line of torch bearers was a very long one, extending from High street to Main. The procession was headed by the Catholic corset band, which rendered some very good music for the marching column. The torches were counted by many different parties, Mr. J. H. Dyer, of radical democratic faith counted 375, while some republicans made 235, which, according to the torches given out, is not far from the actual number, and not difference enough to create a dispute between the democratic and republican count. The Invincibles carried several Flambeau torches, which at times were made to emit a large sheet of flame and added great brilliancy to the illumination, but not so much as a good display of fireworks. The grand parade, being the first appearance of the club and Invincibles was a satisfactory success to all.

At the conclusion of the parade a large crowd assembled in Lappin's hall to listen to a speech by Hon. G. W. Hazelton, of Milwaukee. The Catholic corset band, which occupied a portion of the stage played an appropriate piece of music, which was followed by the Blaine and Logan Glee club singing "Jim and John," in such a manner as to receive the hearty applause of all, and at its conclusion the club was compelled to respond to an encore by singing the first stanza of the same song. Ozden H. Fethers, Gen. , then stepped forward and made one of his brief, but eloquent and pointed introductory speeches, in which every other word was a good hit at the followers of Cleveland, and concluded by introducing Hon. G. W. Hazelton, of Milwaukee, as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Hazelton addressed the audience upon the political issues now before the people of the United States, and the records of the republican and democratic parties. He spoke in a manner that convinced his hearers that the republican party had kept its faith with the people in the management of the affairs of the government. The speech was full of facts, and the speaker had the records to back his statements; and handled his subject in a masterly and convincing manner, and was listened to throughout by a large audience of ladies and gentlemen, notwithstanding the extreme heat which prevailed in the hall.

At the conclusion of Mr. Hazelton's able speech, the Glee Club favored the audience with "The Grand Old Party," to the tune of "Marching Through Georgia," with the band accompaniment, and the band followed with one of their own selections, when the meeting adjourned.

THE SUN DOES MOVE.

The Rev. J. Jaeger (colored), who insists that "the sun does move," is so popular in Richmond, Va., that when the directions are to take a car to a certain corner and then follow the crowd "The evidence of success of modern discoveries being their popularity, "follow the crowd" to your drug store and get your cure for colds, consumption and all throat and lung diseases speedily, thoroughly and permanently. Trial bottles free, of Stearns & Baker.

The Milwaukee Exposition.

Indications seem to promise that the fourth annual exposition will this year surpass its predecessors in several material features. The art gallery, which has always taken rank in point of merit will be the best in Boston and New York, will be further enriched by numerous valuable contributions from distinguished foreign artists. The gallery will be lighted by the Edison electric light company with their latest improved incandescent lamps, some 400 in number, in addition to a separate display of their chandelier system. Military bands in brilliant uniforms, will furnish the music, alternating with eminent organists who will preside at the great organ, the largest in the west. A novelty in the aquarium exhibit will be the mammoth sturgeon which are to be placed in the fountain basin. The machinery exhibit will be unusually large. The space allotted to that important department is almost all taken; indeed the entire building bids fair to be crowded from cellar to dome with exhibits. The management have in preparation several attractions of which it would be premature to speak, but we can say they will be novel and interesting. The railroads are making their usual reduction in rates and everything indicates a very large attendance at the exposition of 1894.
